PROGRAM

Bob Curtis gave a brief introduction to our speaker Millie Norry. Millie gave us a brief overview of her 35 year career in the RCMP. After completing basic training in Regina, Millie was posted to British Columbia, then she returned to the Depot in Regina as an instructor. She also served in Manitoba and ended her career in Internal Audit in Ottawa. The focus of her talk to us was the two months she spent in Namibia to oversee their election and to train the country's police force. Millie told us that the Germans originally occupied the country which currently has a total population of about the combined total population of Saskatchewan and Manitoba. In spite of Namibia now being independent there is still a strong German influence in Namibia. The pictures Millie showed gave us visual overview of both the citizens and the country. Only 7% of the population are white people. John Longworth thanked Millie for her interesting and educational presentation.

50-50 draw was won by Jim Walker
